On night of 11 January 1999, Roger Sylvester, a 30-year-old black man, was restrained on his doorstep by eight police officers from Tottenham Police Station. He sustained numerous injuries, fell into a coma and was put on a life support machine. Seven days later, Roger was pronounced dead.

On Friday 3rd October 2003 the jury at the inquest into his death, took 2 hours to pronounce a unanimous decision of unlawful killing.
